NEW TICKET ELECTED

Big Surprise Sprung In The Election of School Trustees.

METCALFE AND KEACH WON.

Came Under The String By Big Majorities In Exciting Contest.

The election of School Trustees in the city Saturday turned out the most exciting contest ever seen in the city in a school election.

Messrs. J. E. McPherson and J. T. Wall, the trustees whose terms expired, had no opposition until Friday afternoon when Thos. L. Metcalfe and Harry A. Keach were brought out as an opposition ticket. The fight was pitched on "a change," no charges being made against the old trustees, whose management has been highly satisfactory. All of the candidates took the field in person and it became an exciting race in which the interest kept up until 4 o'clock, although the new ticket was leading at noon and increased its lead until the contest was no longer doubtful by two o'clock.

The opposition to the old ticket proved to be a well organized movement and an army of workers lined up behind the new ticket that swept all before it.

The results were as follows, the two first named being elected:

Thos. L. Metcalfe.....634
Harry A. Keach.....527
J. T. Wall.....398
J. E. McPherson.....394

The total vote was about 980, of which 100 was cast by women, who at one time almost filled the city court room in which the election was held.

Mr. McPherson is one of the fathers of the public schools. He has been on the board of trustees for 21 years, most of that time as secretary. He is thoroughly familiar with the work in all its branches and even those who opposed him concede that his long service has been faithful, efficient and unselfish. Mr. Wall has been trustee for 9 years and has given close and conscientious attention to the duties of a position that pays no salary. There are no better men in the city, but they were simply overcome by the demand for "rotation in office."

Their successors are active, wide-awake and successful business men. The vote they received attests their popularity.

COLORED ELECTIONS.

The election of two trustees of the colored graded schools also brought on a hot fight. Peter Postell and Lucian Dade were the trustees whose terms expired. Dade was not a candidate and J. T. Whitney and Ned Turner, Jr., were candidates for his place, making it a triangular contest. The vote stood:

Peter Postell.....641
J. T. Whitney.....553
Ned Turner, Jr.....457

The first named two were elected. Many women voted. Most of them supported Turner.

At Pembroke the election of colored trustees developed such a hot contest that Sheriff Smith was summoned to arrest P. Moore, on a charge of drawing a gun on George Mills. Moore was put under bond and the election proceeded.

GRACEY ELECTION.

There was a hot race at Gracey that resulted in the election of H. C. McGehee and J. P. Meacham over W. J. Wilson and W. C. Holman by 27 to 19. McGehee was standing for re-election and Meacham was elected to a vacancy caused by the retirement of B. W. Cowherd. A few women voted.

HURERTA IS READY TO QUIT

Persistent Rumors That He Is Hunting a Safe Way Out.

FEELING IS GROWING.

Against The Dictator Even In His Own Stronghold.

Vera Cruz, May 4.—Persistent reports continue to circulate here that General Huerta intends to retire from the provisional presidency of Mexico on condition that he be assured a safe-conduct to a port and be placed on board a foreign warship.

The resignation of Jose Lopez Portillo y Rojas, the foreign minister, coup ed with reports that there is a growing undercurrent of feeling in Mexico City against the Huerta government, is interpreted here as foreshadowing a change in the situation in the federal capital.

Close observers here of the government's situation believe Senor Portillo's resignation may clear the way eventually for the appointment of a foreign minister, who under the Mexican constitution, could succeed General Huerta as president. In these circles, it is pointed out that, while Venustiano Carranza declined to treat with General Huerta he might consent to enter into negotiations with his successor and thus facilitate mediation.

Continued rebel successes in the north and the outcome of the attack on Tampico may, according to well informed opinion, bring about a rapid change in Mexico City.

News of the peaceful way in which the Americans are occupying Vera Cruz, it is said, has spread to the capital, and has convinced Mexicans there that the American invasion of the port is not for conquest or aggression. Refugees declare the capital's inhabitants fear the coming there of General Villa more than that of the American troops.

TRAIN PASSES THROUGH

The special train over the L. & N. this morning will carry a large number of Confederate Veterans and their friends to the reunion at Jacksonville, Fla. The reduced rate to that point went on Sunday and continues until May 7, inclusive. The special train this morning will pass Hopkinsville at 9:01 and will arrive at Jacksonville tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. In addition to the visit to the reunion there will be side trips through Florida for those who wish to look over the state and many from this section will avail themselves of the opportunity and will have their tickets extended for that purpose.

New Police Judge.

Judge S. P. Jones yesterday qualified as police judge of Pembroke, vice John H. Pendleton, resigned.

Dr. C. W. Moody, Chas. E. Mann and J. B. Carter, were elected without opposition.

AT CROFTON.

There were five candidates at Crofton with hardly enough votes polled to go around. The candidates received the following votes: C. C. Croft 16, M. A. Brown 9, T. L. Jones 8, G. W. Morgan 2, Ben Cranor 1. The first two named were elected.

COUNCIL IN SESSION

Hears Several Committees And Discusses Street Oil.

SCHOOL OFFICERS NAMED.

Appropriation Made To Pay For New Street Roller.

The Board of Council met Friday night with all present, including the new member, C. W. Ducker. Mr. Ducker was assigned to the committee places made vacant by the death of his predecessor, Mr. Buckner, including chairman of the cemetery committee.

The council authorized the appointment of officers to hold the school election and Mayor Yost appointed for the white school R. T. Stowe, W. C. Kuykendall, J. W. Pursley and George Bradley; for the colored school Walter Robinson, Willis Mayes, John Knight and J. W. Head.

A sewer on Walnut street, near H. W. Linlon's new residence, was ordered extended to 17th street.

The bill of $1700 for the new roller, less freight, was ordered paid to the International Harvester Co.

A proposition from citizens to pay $12 a week for sprinkling Seventh and Ninth street to the Park limits was received but not acted upon.

The question of oiling the streets was discussed and Mayor Yost instructed to order a car of oil whenever the money for it is deposited in advance. It is planned to use the heavy oil.

The vacancy in the office of the City Engineer was not filled, but will be taken up at the meeting May 15th. There are several applicants for the place.

Palmer Graves appeared with a complaint that seep water from the river enters his rock quarry, which is below the bed of the river above the Second street bridge. The flood-gate in the dam has not been in since last fall. The city owns a narrow strip of land between the river and Mr. Graves' quarry. A committee was appointed to inspect the quarry.

Put ashes and other dirt for removal in separate piles on side walk or side street.

City wagons will not come on clean up day but on following day in each section.

Everything that is left on side walks or side streets where wagons can drive through will be removed. No wagon will be allowed to go into your yard to get trash.

The Slogan is "BE READY" as no section will be visited but once.

WILL OPEN ON FRIDAY

The Kitty League Will Not Be Afraid of a Hoodoo This Season.

OUTLOOK VERY FLATTERING.

Big Bunch of New Blood In Each of The Six Teams Now Ready.

The 1914 season of the Kitty League will open Friday, May 8, with Hopkinsville playing at Owensboro, Cairo at Paducah and Clarksville at Henderson.

The season promises to be the best in the league's history, not only in a financial way but also in the article of ball furnished. It is expected to be less of a drain financially than heretofore because the circuit has been reduced to six clubs, making it more compact and cutting out the excessive railroad trips that figured so largely in the expense. All of the teams this year have much new blood and judging from all accounts the players are about the best lot of youngsters ever dug up. So promising are many of these men that the baseball officials in the several towns are already figuring on selling them for fat sums before the season closes.

Dr. Frank Bassett, president of the league, is very optimistic over the outlook.

As yet the definite lineups of the various teams cannot be stated as none of them have cut down to playing strength as yet. All of the teams will start the season with fourteen to sixteen men on the payroll and will reduce within thirty days to twelve men.

Paducah is much pleased with the way Manager Van Dine has handled his recruits this year. The fans there say he is better in every way than Art Brouters who won the pennant for them last year. Van Dine, like Brouters, plays third base.

One of the seemingly unfillable holes on the Hopkinsville team has been third base, but this year Nance, a new man, is touted as a wonder.

Owensboro is placing great reliance in their pitching staff, which is carried over from last year. They have Johnson, Markham, Gossage and White, all of whom were winners last season.

Not much is heard from Cairo except that Manager Herbert is making good progress with the half hundred men he had to report for practice.

Except to give assurances that they will be ready for the opening and to do some work toward raising a guarantee fund, Clarksville is not showing any activity. Bill Chenault will manage the team and it is persistently whispered about that Nashville or some higher class team will furnish the players.

Manager Snyder at Henderson has been putting in good time with his men and is very well pleased with the indications.

RAISE TAKEN OFF

Christian County Assessment
As It Was.Final action was taken Wednesday on the assessments of property in the following counties by the State Board of Equalization: Wolfe, Hickman, Crittenden, Livingston Fulton and Christian County assessments were not raised. Calloway was raised 2 per cent on farm land and town lots. Carlisle was raised 15 on each; Graves, 5 on each; Hopkins, 5 on each; Lyon, 8 on land; Marshall, 8 on land and 5 on lots; McCracken, 20 on each; Whitley, 10 on land; Caldwell, 10 on land and 5 on lots.

MOST UNWILLING BRIDE.

A beautiful bride, who changed her mind at the altar and fled, was pursued, captured and brought back to the church, where the ceremony was performed. As the couple about to be married stood before the altar in the village church of Kazantwip, in Russia, the bride, Mlle. Lebedew, one of the most beautiful girls of the district, suddenly tore off her veil and shouted, "I leave him. He is too ugly. I don't want to marry him." Mlle. Lebedew then ran out of the church, leaving the friends and relatives aghast. She was followed by the best man and another friend of the bridegroom, and quickly caught.
Despite her protests, she was brought back to the church, where the village priest, unmoved, began the wedding ceremony. Mlle. Lebedew struggled to get away again, but she was held tightly by the bridegroom's friends.
Finally, tired of the struggle, she consented to say "yes," and the knot was tied.

FILLS GAP MECHANICALLY.

New York's Interborough Rapid Transit company has perfected a mechanical gap-filling device which will be used at subway stations on a curve. It consists of a grating segment of the platform which is thrust forward, filling the gap between the car and the edge of the platform, the movement being made just before the train comes to a stop. The grating remains in this position until the train has started and moved a distance of seven or eight feet. The gap filler is operated by electro-pneumatic cylinder action.

HEZEKIAH AND CANCER CURE.

It is evident that medical science, in its determination to master disease, has found in radium a powerful weapon against cancer, and the call upon the government to retain its radium fields in the West, and the proposition of distinguished physicians to aid the general government in a plan to cheapen the substance and universalize its treatment is beautiful in the extreme. Hezekiah, king of Judah, who lived 700 years
B. C., had a growth on his body, which may well have been a cancer, called in the record a boil. It was divine power that wrought the cure, but a material instrument was used in the poultice, the primitive remedy.
"And Isaiah said, 'Take a lump of figs.' And they took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered." (II.
Kings 20:7.)—Cincinnati Enquirer.

FEMINIST CARD GAME IS NEW

Philadelphia Social Leader Spends a Small Fortune Designing New Pack of Cards.At the big reception given by Mrs.
John King Van Rensselaer at her Philadelphia home, a new card game came into existence. "Women Are Trumps" is the title of the newest pastime and it is related distinctly to the feminist movement in which Mrs. Van Rensselaer is deeply interested.For the production of the new game a small fortune was expended.
Fifty-two cards compose the pack with which it is played, and the designs, skillfully executed, are of infinite meaning. Women at their work are depicted and the ornaments of ancient princesses, the robes of medieval queens and the tablets of a people of early Egypt passed under the scrutiny of craftsmen engaged to produce the cards and incidents in the life of a queen who ruled two thousand years ago were made the basis of some of the game's features.A pack of cards was provided for each of the eight hundred invited as guests and it is believed the game will spread far and near.Mrs. Van Rensselaer believes the game cannot be used for gambling.

She Stayed In Bed.

Ingram, Tex.—"Ever since I became a woman," writes Mrs. E. M. Evans, of this place, "I suffered from womanly troubles. Last fall I got so bad, I had to stay in bed for nearly a week every month. Since I have taken Cardui, I feel better than I have for years." You can rely on Cardui. It acts on the womanly organs and helps the system to regain its normal state of health, in a natural way. Prepared especially for women, it prevents womanly pains, by acting on the cause, and builds up womanly strength in a natural way. Purely vegetable. Mild, but certain in action. Try it.

"BITING OFF BIG CHAW."

The scope of mediation plans for the settlement of the Mexico crisis has been broadened to include the entire range of Mexican affairs—not alone the critical issue between the United States and the Huerta regime, but also the conflict between the elements of northern and southern Mexico which have rent the republic for many months. This signal enlargement of the mediation program followed the receipt of a formal acceptance by Gen. Carranza, chief of the constitutionalists, of the principle of mediation, as proposed by the ambassador from Brazil and the ministers from Argentina and Chile. Already the United States and Huerta had formally accepted the good offices of these South American envoys and now as a further step Gen. Carranza has been brought into the deliberations so as to draw every element and faction within the range of any settlement which may be attained. Earlier in the day the mediators made another decisive move, in asking the United States and General Huerta to agree to an armistice by which all aggressive military movements would be suspended pending the outcome of the negotiations. The mediators confidently expect both sides to accept the armistice proposal. A separate proposal for an armistice between Huerta and Carranza also will be made, and with its acceptance all of the warring elements throughout Mexico as well as the American forces, would maintain a military status quo. The American government in its formal reply to the armistice proposal will stipulate expressly that any untoward act toward Americans will be regarded as an infraction of the armistice.

The May American Magazine.

One of the most important contributions to the May American Magazine is a remarkable character sketch of Woodrow Wilson written by Ray Standard Baker, who has been called "the greatest reporter in the world." Other highly interesting articles are: "Experiences of an Airman," by Augustus Post; "They Who Knock at Our Gates," a splendid article of immigration, by Mary Antin, a brilliant young Russian Jewess. "The Auto Game in Homeburg," a humorous piece about automobilism, by George Fitch, the famous Illinois comic writer; "The Business of Being a Burglar," an actual thief's account of his adventures; and "A Husband's Story," in which a man who has been married twenty-five years begins an account of the trials and perils and successes of marriage.

Fiction is contributed by Marjorie Benton Cooke, Hugh S. Fullerton, Emer E. Ferris and Gene Harrison. Humorous sketches are contributed by Kin Hubbard, Stephen Leacock, James Montgomery Flagg and E. W. Howe. The Theatrical and "Interesting People" department are full of good things, and the prize winning letters are published in the contest entitled "The Person Who Looks Like Me." In these letters remarkable cases of double identity are reported.

The May Wide World Magazine.

The Wide World for May opens with a graphic description of a South Sea Boar-Hunt—generally regarded as the most exciting sport in the world. The hunters are armed with cutlasses only, so that when a man makes a false thrust it is not unlikely that he receives a rip from the boars tusks with tragic consequences. Two articles of travel entitled "A Cycling Tour Through Central Africa" and "A Lady's Ramble in Inca-Land" are both interestingly written and lavishly illustrated. "The Lost Secret" which is the story of a vanished gold mine, will appeal to all lovers of the romantic. How you may enjoy Alpine mountain climbing to your heart's content for a matter of a hundred dollars is told by Malcolm Savage Treacher in his article "In the Ice-World of the Dauphiny." Hitherto it has generally been supposed that the wealthy only could indulge in this fascinating pastime. But the most interesting contribution of the month is "The Adventure of Samba Sall," the hero of the ill-fated Bretonnet expedition, which was overwhelmed, after a desperate battle, by the forces of Rabad the black Napoleon of Central Africa. Many other articles and stories of more than ordinary interest are to be found in the May issue of this "unusual" magazine.

Hodgenville Hit Hard.

Hodgenville, Ky., May 1.—Twenty-six business houses and nine residences in this city were destroyed by fire which started early Tuesday in a harness shop. The loss is estimated at $250,000. The flames were extinguished by a bucket brigade of citizens after a fight of several hours.

GOOD PLAIN PLUM PUDDING

Favorite Dessert That Is Not Too Rich for the Stomachs of Young Children.

Have some water in a kettle or dish already boiling and make a stiff paste with the following ingredients: One-quarter pound each of fine chopped suet, dried currants and raisins, one pint wheat flour, one-half teacup bread crumbs, one well-beaten egg, one-half teaspoon cinnamon, one-quarter teaspoon table salt and a little cold water. It is well to mix suet, salt and flour together before adding other ingredients. Spread a piece of clean, white cotton cloth about 12 inches square on a bread or kneading board and flour it and dredge cloth quite plentifully with flour and tie with a strong, white cotton string. This prepared, lower it carefully into the boiling water and keep it boiling steadily for fully 2½ hours. Serve with hard or liquid sauce whichever is liked best. There should be a rest of some sort at bottom of kettle or dish so that pudding bag will not rest on or touch bottom of dish while pudding is boiling. To make provision for this we prefer a small flat rack made of small, smooth, narrow pieces of wood joined together with wooden pegs, thoroughly cleansed so as to prevent taste of wood. After pudding has boiled the required time remove while water is still boiling, before removing kettle or dish from fire.

PAPER TOWELS AND NAPKINS

No Objection to Their Use When There Is a Temporary Shortness of the Linen Articles.

Many particular housekeepers with large families are often temporarily inconvenienced by finding the supply of towels and table napkins has given out before the laundry comes in. They would be greatly pleased with the result, besides the wear and tear on the linen being lessened, by re-enforcing the supply with the paper towel. Rolls of paper towels placed in the bathroom for the hands of the school children, who usually make sad havoc of the white towel, are very practical helps. A roll could also be placed in the nursery to wipe smeary little hands and faces. A roll could be used in the kitchen to replace the roller towel. A paper napkin looks very well on the table tray as a substitute for the linen napkin.

Slight Flavors Change Dishes.
Many of the simplest dishes may be greatly changed in flavor if a little attention is given to the matter of seasoning. Those who have not tried it should use a little nutmeg for seasoning when next serving spinach. Just a few coriander seeds will glorify the dish of beets. Use a sprinkling of grated cheese with creamed cauliflower. It is delicious. Drop two or three cloves into the vegetable soup and see how the flavor of the various vegetables is accentuated and yet blended. Curry powder too often is confined to the sauce served with chicken. Use a shaking or two with brussels sprouts. Pimentos may be used to advantage not only in salads and in preparing sandwiches or canapés, but the cook who discovered that they give a zest to the oyster soup deserves the thanks of every epicure.

Simple Cleaner for Silver.
Put two teaspoonfuls of precipitated chalk in a bowl and moisten with enough ammonia to make a smooth, thick cream. Paint this on the silver, mix more as it is needed, and if the cream dries in the bowl faster than you can paint, moisten with a few more drops of ammonia. With a piece of old soft cloth wipe off the pieces on which the cream has thoroughly dried, brushing out all crevices with a toothbrush and follow with a chamol. The result is the smooth, white gloss of fine old silver.

Buttered Noodles.
Throw the noodles into boiling water and let them boil for ten minutes. Take them up with a strainer and put on a hot dish. Melt some fresh butter in a stewpan, sprinkle a large handful of breadcrumbs in it, and let them remain until they are lightly browned, then put them upon the noodles. Clarify a little more butter if the first portion was dried up in browning the crumbs, and pour it over the dish; serve very hot.

Codfish Surprise.
Beat a cup of creamed codfish with as much hot mashed potato; add the stiff white of an egg, fill buttered dishes and bake brown. A nice dish to accompany the luncheon fish is either a salad of cucumbers with French dressing and sliced tomatoes, with the same dressing, or tomatoes dipped in crumbs and egg and fried or broiled. With or without potatoes these vegetables would make the meal attractive.

Dried Beef on Toast.
Place one dozen pieces of thinly sliced dried beef in a frying pan with a generous piece of butter and a little water, let boil one minute; add one and one-half cups rich milk, into which one tablespoon of flour has been dissolved. Let cook thoroughly. Pour over slices of hot toast and serve.

Cook Book Cover.
Covering the cook books with paraffin paper will keep them in good condition and at the same time allow the lettering on the back and sides to show, says the Ladies' Home Journal. Besides looking neat the books will be so well protected that they will last longer.

WINNING OUT IN LAST INNING

Pastor Started With a Rush at Beginning, but Choir Evened Up Matters at the Close.

It looked like a duel between the parson and the choir and at the end of the ninth inning the score seemed to be in favor of the singers. It was at the morning service and the minister, sitting in the pulpit with a dignified expression, listened to the singing of the usual anthem. Then he arose and announced in a loud, clear voice:

"My text will be: 'Now, when the uproar had ceased.'"

For a moment the members of the choir looked as if they had been fed on persimmons instead of peaches, and then they got together, and in the softest kind of whispers began to talk it over. As a result of the subdued conference a slight change was made in the musical program and when the sermon had ended and the organ pealed forth the choir sang:

"Now it is high time to awake after sleep."—Brooklyn Eagle.

Read His Mind.

A negro having won a dollar at a crap game, decided to spend it on having his fortune told. The fortune teller led him into a gloomy room with dirty hangings and misty red lights. She took his palm, traced it with a dollar, spread out her cards and then said:

"You are very fond of music; you like chicken, you have won money at craps, and you have been in jail."

The negro looked at her with bulging eyes and finally ejaculated:

"Mah goodness, lady; why, you jest read mah inmost thoughts!"

WALKING HOME.

Lady—You actors travel so much. I have heard that home ties worry a great many of you.

Actor—Yes, and railroad ties worry the rest.

Feminine Jealousy.

"Supposing," said Mr. Meekton that you were a voter?"

"Well?" rejoined his wife.

"And suppose I were a candidate."

"You want to know whether I would vote for you?"

"That was the question I had in mind."

"Yes, Leonidas, I should vote for you. But if I caught any other women voting for you I should consider their action very forward and impertinent."

—Washington Star.

Explained.

"A scientist has discovered that every cubic foot of air contains 50,000,000 insects," said the Old Fogey.

"Then that explains it," said the Grouch.

"Explains what?" asked the Old Fogey.

"That must have been a pneumatic mattress I slept on last night," replied the Grouch.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Why He Knew.

"I wonder if I ought to send my wife and daughters to see your play," said the conservative man.

"Why do you ask such a question?" rejoined the indignant manager.

"So many people are going to see it I was afraid it might not be altogether proper."—Washington Star.

Progressive Consolation.

Smith—Brown has owed me $50 for the last four years.

Jones—That isn't so bad. If you'll figure it, you'll see that it's only a dollar a month; and when he owes it to you eight years it will be only 5¢ cents a month.—Puck.

Can't Keep Out.

"Why are you investigating automobiles so thoroughly? Going to buy a car?"

"No, I want to be able to butt in with advice when I see one stalled in the street."—Louisville Courier Journal.

Nervousness.

"No," said Miss Maggie Gazeen, "I never get in the least nervous when I recite."

"I know," replied the clumsy youth. "You're used to it. But how about us audience that was hearin' it for the first time?"

At Rhine's Top.

Mrs. Robinson—And were you up the Rhine?

Mrs. de Jones—I should think so; right to the very top. What a splendid view there is from the summit!"—London Tit-Bits.

Her First Order.

Mrs. Youngbride (telephoning to butcher)—I want some meat, please. Butcher—Yes'm. How much will you have?

Mrs. Youngbride—O or—how much have you got?—Boston Transcript.

CARNIVAL THIS WEEK

The Gala Week Opens Under Auspices of Co. D.

The Carnival to be given all this week at Mercer's Park, under the auspices of Co. D., began yesterday and will be open every afternoon and night until Saturday. A free concert was given Sunday afternoon at Virginia Park and a big crowd heard the music. The rain yesterday gave it a bad start, but better weather is hoped for to-day.

COLORED POPULATION

Had A General Reunion In City Saturday.

The first Saturday in May drew the usual great crowd of negroes to the city and they crowded the streets all day. This has long been the great shopping day for the colored people all over the county and few of them fail to come to town on that date.

Purely Personal.

W. A. Cantrell, a well known tobacconist of Hopkinsville, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon. He will spend several days here on business.—Paducah Sun.

C. P. Dearing and I. B. Porter and daughter, Miss Lilly Porter, of near Roaring Spring, left here Sunday for Palm Beach, Fla., on a visit to relatives. They will stop over at the Confederate Reunion at Jacksonville, on their return.

Messrs. W. R. Brumfield, C. O. Wright, S. L. Cowherd, Lucian Guthrie, Matt and John Charlton and Jake Walker left yesterday morning for Florida.

Robin Hood at The Rex.

The Rex Theatre has another big special attraction for today, the story of Robin Hood, an English nobleman of the Norman conquest period. It is in three parts, devoted to three stirring scenes in Robin's career, his love affair with Maid Marian, his friendship for Alan-a-Dale and his restoration to his rights by King Richard. There are many stirring events in the career of this popular hero, familiar the world over, and the Mutual Film Co., has presented a photoplay that is sure to please everybody. "Don't fail to see it."

Weather For The Week.

Washington, May 3.—Showers during the first half of the coming week over most of the country from the Mississippi to the Atlantic, with temperatures above the seasonal average, and showers and thunderstorms in the far west during the latter part of the week were forecast by the weather bureau tonight.

"The indications are that during the coming week the temperature will average about the normal generally in the eastern and southern states and the great central valleys," said the bulletin.

Was Able to Sleep and Eat Again

Mrs. Mueller says: "I keep Peruna in the house constantly. When I am not feeling well I take a few doses. It always restores."

Mrs. Mueller's story of her experience with Peruna fully explains why she always keeps Peruna on hand. A few years ago she was very sick. The trouble seemed to be the stomach and liver. She suffered great pain. Was unable to get anything to help her. She was growing weaker and weaker. She became tired of life.

Somebody suggested that she write to the Peruna Co. She did so. Through their advice she began to use Peruna. In a letter from her at this time she says: "Through the use of Peruna I have regained my health. I took only a bottle and a half when I was able to sleep and eat again and my nervousness disappeared." No wonder Mrs. Mueller keeps Peruna in the house. Under similar circumstances Peruna would be in every house in the land.

Any one taking Peruna ought to have a free copy of the "Ills of Life." Address Peruna Co., Columbus, Ohio. People who object to liquid medicines can now obtain Peruna Tablets.

"John" the Favorite.

A French journal has been digging into the soul of the young girl, and asking her what she wants in a husband as to color, age and name. The vast majority of 50,000 reply that they want a dark man of twenty-seven, and his name should be the French equivalent of John. None of your Algerians or Erics for the cautious damsel. None of your Hippolytes or Pauls—mercurial or subversive persons. They want John when it comes to husbands.

NOTHING TO WORRY ABOUT

Worst to Come, But It Will Be a Few Million Years Before It Gets Here.

The public is often put in a panic by scientific persons who seem to have little fear for themselves. Learned men announce one thing after another that strikes terror to the multitude.

Common persons cannot dispute those who think in cycles and figure with logarithms, and must take any scientific declaration without question.

An astronomer now says that with modern refinements of mathematical analysis and increased accuracy of observation it has been found that Mercury does not conform to the Newtonian theory of gravitation. That planet, it is added, is going too fast and has a "kink" in its orbit. They haven't yet figured out just what this "kink" will do to us, but they come forward with another theory that has an awful "kick" in it.

The moon is misbehaving, they affirm. It is possible that the sights observed by Luna in modern times on this earth may have demoralized her. She is "going faster" than ever, the astronomers say, and is moving toward the earth. When she reaches the earth, even the astronomers will probably take to the woods.

When will the moon get here? Why, she is coming at the rate of fourteen feet in 200 years, and is expected to arrive in 1,945,000,000 years!—Judge.

Shattered Test.

The extremely handsome professor of nerve restoration was addressing his matinee class of society ladies, relates the Cleveland Plain Dealer.

"I am about to show you one of my original tests," he said, with a flash of perfect teeth. "I produce an artificial mouse attached to a string and draw it across the floor. You all know it is artificial and are not startled. Yet there may be a little palpitation. Let us see." He stepped outside and immediately reappeared, his hand holding a string to which a mouse was attached. He drew it forward. "You see how harmless it is. Look at it for a little while." He tossed down the string and the mouse immediately made a dash for the nearest chair. In five seconds the room was empty.

The handsome professor looked around ruefully.

"That darn kid rung in a live one on me," he said.

Chang on Early Rising.

In the diary of which a partial translation was issued last year, Li Hung Chang deprecates the habit of early rising. At the close of his visit to St. Petersburg the Chinese statesman wrote: "I have learned that we start early tomorrow morning. This is not to my taste. I would much prefer to begin the journey now and sleep on the train. To arise so early in the morning seems to be a foolish western practice, foolish especially among men of state, who could so much better transact their affairs at night, when all is quiet and the mind is most alert. But from all I can learn these statesmen and lawgivers look for their pleasures at night, going to banquets, theaters and fancy parties. To this I attribute much of the intrigue known to all these courts. Women cannot enter the council chambers nor make speeches in parliament, but they work their wiles at the parties and operas."

Gentle Hint.

Not all the worms that turn are as gentle and as tactful in their turning as the one that a German paper recently described.

A quiet, patient little man had been pushed about and trodden on by the other passengers on a crowded street car. For a long time he suffered in silence. Then, in a meek voice, he addressed an awkward youth standing next to him.

"Young man," he said, "I hope you will not think me rude, but may I ask your age?"

The youth stared at him for a moment and replied: "Eighteen."

"Eighteen," repeated the little man, softly. "Now, really, young man, don't you think that you are old enough to stand on your own feet?"—Youth's Companion.

Beautiful Mosquito.

Most people are familiar with the fact that a powdery or mealy substance comes from the wings of butterflies and moths when they are touched, or when they come against the clothing. On account of this, they are sometimes called millers, though the term is more frequently applied to moths. The naturalist has a long Latin name for them that means scaly wings, and so calls them the Lepidoptera.

Some other kinds of insects besides the Lepidoptera have interesting scales on their wings, which has a very beautiful arrangement of long, flat scales arranged in rows along the veins of the wings. Those of the butterfly are often of especially beautiful colors so arranged as to form exquisite patterns.—St. Nicholas.

Something to Boot.

"Oh, Uncle Fred," said Willie, "are you going to give me that nice new watch?"

"No," replied Uncle Fred; "I'm going to trade it to you for a perfect report card from your teacher. But wait a minute—you're getting too much the better of the swap. You ought to give me something to boot." "All right," said Willie, promptly. "I'll let you take my football!"

WHEN A GIRL'S NAME COUNTS

Elizabeth Randolph Was in Bad Humor Because West Point Cadet Had Forgotten Her Name.

West Point history records this true story. A cadet was asked by a brother cadet to pay the debts of one friend to another by dancing with a "Fem," whom the second had "dragged." Now the introduction and civil word were over, and Cadet Two hied him away, pledged to return in time for the fifth dance.

He found his partner for the fifth dance. But alack, her name had slipped his memory. In the ballroom this is not an unforgivable offence, and he confessed his fault easily, gracefully, humbly, expecting to be absolved at small expense. But the lady was not pleased, nay, she was annoyed, and told him so. Her name was a nice one. It was Elizabeth Randolph.

"What did you think it was—Jones?" she asked in high bad humor. Then, by way of retaliation—"I don't know what your name is. You cadets are so much alike. What is it?"

"My name is Algernon Leroy," he answered sincerely. Then he sought out his chum and warned him, for the lady's sake. For his name was Jones.—New York Evening Post.

Casey and the Mule.

"Twas Casey, ye know, wint into business, an' he bought a livery shabale an' had a painter make a sign fr' th' front, showing him gallantly astride a mule. 'Twill advertise,' said Casey. Along came Finnegan.

"'Tis a foine picture?" asked Casey.

"Sure," said Finnegan; "'tis a loikness. But who th' divvie is th' man on yer back?"

NOT TO BE TRIFLED WITH.

Waldo—Really, my friend, your idioms are incomprehensible to me.
Mickey—Say, call me dat agin an' I'll break iver pane of glass in yer face—see!

Lucky Girl!

"Can he keep your daughter in the style to which she has become accustomed?"

"If he cannot he is putting up a fine bluff."

"Does he say he can?"

"No, but he appears to be worrying about what the income tax may do to him."

Deeply Interested.

"You seem very much impressed by all these explanations I have been giving you about banking and currency."

"Yes Charley, dear," replied young Mrs. Torkins. "It seems perfectly wonderful that anybody could know as much as you do about money without having any."

Postcards and Letters.

"You sent me so many picture cards while I was at the summer resort," she protested, "instead of writing letters."

"Well," he answered, "I was trying to spare you any disappointments. As soon as you see a picture card you know there isn't going to be a check with it."

Contrasted Privileges.

"Don't you envy the opportunities that great wealth affords?"

"Well," replied the philosopher in overalls; "of course I'd like the limousines and private yachts. But I don't care so much for the alimony arguments and writs of habeas corpus."

In Excutive Session.

Bix—My wife holds an indignation meeting and adopts resolutions whenever I stay out nights.

Dix—Well, that helps to pass away her time.

Bix—Yes; but hang it, she insists on reading the minutes after my arrival.

Luncheon Almost Ready.

Two suffragettes, on a tramp for the cause, were footing it along the dusty road in the hot sun.

"I'm just about baked," exclaimed one.

"Thank goodness!" said the other quickly; "for I am almost starved."

Sad Awakening.

"I shall never marry," said the young man with a pointed beard.

"Because you are an artist?"

"Yes, I painted a picture of the girl to whom I was engaged. She said that if that was the way I thought she looked, it was better for us to part."

On an Ocean Liner.

"That fellow gets seasick, but he's a game sport."

"Keeps eating, does he?"

"Yes, he's had four breakfasts this morning."

Tom Bennett, a Cadiz negro, who was paroled from the Eddyville penitentiary several weeks ago, was arrested on a larceny charge last Friday and held to the grand jury on a bond of $100, which he has been unable to give. Any law violation is a violation of the terms of the parole, and if Bennett should be proven guilty on trial of the larceny charge, he will probably be returned to Eddyville to serve out the remaining two years.—Cadiz Record.

SMALL SISTER'S JUST PRIDE

Unbounded Activities of Her Senior Drew Forth the Little One's Per-vent Admiration.

Family pride is a jewel. But it isn't everybody who has so enthusiastic a press agent as a certain little Jewish girl who has been identified with the feminist movement on the South side.

She was presiding at a political meeting the other night, and her younger sister made one of the audience. Admiration was written large on the face of this sister. She listened in rapture to every word that the presiding officer spoke, and finally confided in a lady who sat next to her.

"That girl who's speaking," she said, "is my sister."

"So?" replied the other. "She looks like a real clever girl."

"Clever! Well, she goes to all the parties and the tangoes, and she wears a satin dress."

"Indeed? She must be very smart."

"Smart! Well, would you believe it that on top of all her social engagements and her activities in politics that girl went and got herself engaged last Friday night!"—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

LESS LUNACY IN LONDON.

Lunacy in London is on the decline according to figures given in a report by the asylums committee. The number of insane persons for whose accommodation the council is responsible has risen this year by 272. But this is less by nearly 50 per cent than the increase recorded last year, though it is practically the same as the increase of 1912 over 1911. The average annual increase over a period of 24 years is 462. The increase in the total number of lunatics (including those in the case of the metropolitan asylums board, in workhouses, or with friends) is also declining, though not so remarkably. This year it is 353, as against 506 in 1913 and 530 in 1912. The average annual increase is 521. The number of criminal lunatics for whom the country is called upon to find accommodation is this year reduced to 34; and the total number of patients in the London asylums (19,524) is 71 higher than last year.

THEATER PRICES LONG AGO.

Talk of reducing theater prices in England recalls the charges made in former times. In Shakespeare's day the ordinary prices were: Boxes, one shilling; pit, sixpence; gallery, twopence; which, making allowance for the difference in money values, means that boxes were cheaper, but that for other parts of the house the charges were about the same as they are today. Sunday afternoons, when new plays were usually presented, all prices were doubled.

"It is very hard," sighed an over-worked teacher, "to teach the young idea how to shoot."
"No," replied an intelligent student of juvenile human nature, "not if you give the young idea a cat-and-rifle."

Determination Wins.

Men foreordained to be great are the men who make circumstances. They never wait for them. They walk in the path no man has hewn out. They build their own road. Even fate will stand back when she meets the man who laughs at her frown. Determination will conquer. It must. Force is the lever which moves the world. "I will" can make the very mountains come unto you.—New York Weekly.

Ingenious Calculating Machine.

A Hungarian citizen has invented an instrument which shows instantly the amount of interest due on any given sum for any period at any given rate of interest. The instrument, made in the size and shape of a watch, is of very simple construction and inexpensive. All that is necessary to operate it is to place the hands in the proper position on the dial and the exact amount of interest in each case is indicated on the dial.

ALL GOOD IN RIGHT THINKING

Sow Proper Thoughts and Rejoice in the Harvests They Bring to You, Is Sound Advice.

Efficacious doses! Of what? Thought! Health and cleanliness of mind are the first requisites healthward. How obtain them? By right thinking. "To recognize the nature and action of thought is education," arousing human beings to the necessity for right thinking, and the power attained thereby is a work we may all engage in.

The walk, talk, yes, move every member through "thought." Have you ever noticed the movement, the carriage, the shuffling gait of the mentally deficient? They are unable to direct thought. Thought is one of the greatest powers; it is an arrow which enters the depths of "right thinking."

Be careful to direct the intelligence high; practise this for one week, then note results. Scientists admit that to think is hard work; that is why so many are willing to allow others to do their thinking for them.

Sow a good thought and you reap a good act. Sow a good act and you reap a good habit. Sow a good habit and you reap a good character.—Kansas City Star.

LAW AS TO BURGLARS' TOOLS

Supreme Court of Wisconsin Has Handed Down Definition That Constitutes a Precedent.

A legal definition of burglars' tools is made by the supreme court of Wisconsin in State vs. Bolinski, in construing a statute which prohibits a person from having in possession a "machine tool or implement" designed for cutting through or breaking any building, room or vault, with intent to use it in order to seal from any building, room or vault any money or property.

It was held that the word "tools" includes implements used to perform a physical operation when directed by hand and are movable for such operation, as distinguished from a machine, which is a combination of parts by which, when motive power is supplied directly, or by relation to another physical instrumentality, some physical result will be produced, and the term "machine tool, or implement," as so used, includes a bottle two-thirds full of nitroglycerine, three pieces of fuse, fitted with a detonating cap, which, when used together, might cause an explosive force which could be used to break a building, room or vault.

WHAT IS A SENTIMENTALIST?

"Sentimental" is one of the most difficult catchwords in the world to define; and you can get a roomful of intelligent people quarreling over it any time. Perhaps, for our purposes, it will serve merely to say that the sentimentalist is always, in one way or another, disloyal to facts. He cannot be trusted to give a straight account, because his own sense of things is more valuable to him than the truth. He has come in on the top of the pragmatic wave, and the sands of Anglo-Saxondom are strewn thick with him. He serves, in Kipling's phrase, the God of Things as They Ought to Be (according to his private feeling). His own perversion may be esthetic or intellectual or moral or sociological, but he is always recognizable by his tampering with truth.—Katherine F. Gerould, in Atlantic.

SHEEP FOR PRINCE EDWARDS.

Consul Wesley Frost, stationed at Charlottetown, Prince Edward island, reports that a small flock of karakul sheep is to be imported into that province from Texas. Prince Edward island has recently achieved considerable notoriety through its remarkably lucrative fox-breeding industry, and leading raisers of foxes are backing the new enterprise. It is proposed to cross the karakul sheep with the long-wool sheep of the island, which are celebrated for the fine luster and strong fiber of their wool, in the expectation that a strain of hybrids will result having the tight curls of the karakul at birth, together with the gloss and strength of the local breeds.

AND ELSA WAS ONLY SEVEN.

"Don't you think little Elsa gets more and more like me?"
"Certainly; soon we shan't be able to distinguish the difference between you. She grows older and you grow younger."—Fliegende Blätter.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH NO. 4.

Nat Gaither, Soldier and President of The Bank of Hopkinsville.

The President of the Bank of Hopkinsville, Nat Gaither, is one of the best known men in Hopkinsville and has been for nearly 50 years. He is not a native of the city, but was born at Cerulean Springs Nov. 26, 1844, being a son of Wm. N. Gaither.
He was in school at Columbia, Ky., where his grandfather, Dr. Nathan Gaither, lived when the battles of 1862 were fought and enlisted in the Confederate army when 18 years of age, in the fall of that year. He joined Capt. Bowling E. Roberts'

NAT GAITHER.

cavalry at Murfreesboro, Tenn., then acting as escort for Gen. Roger Hanson, commanding the Kentucky Brigade, Gen. Breckinridge's division.
This company was recruited mostly from Wayne and Pulaski counties and Judge M. C. Saufley, a school-mate of young Gaither's, was made first lieutenant and it was through this circumstance that he joined a company remote from his own section of the state. Gen. Hanson was killed at Murfreesboro and the company was transferred to Col. J. Warren Grisby's Sixth Kentucky Cavalry, becoming Co. H therein. Gen. Basil W. Duke was brigade commander, being in Morgan's division. The young soldier received his "baptism of fire" in the bloody fight at Murfreesboro, when the famous Orphans' Brigade lost 2,500 men. During this fight Nat Gaither and Marshal Ney

Stone were made couriers for Gen.
Hanson and were near him when he fell fatally wounded.

He was with Gen. Morgan at Milton, Tenn., at Snow Mountain and in the raids into Kentucky that finally culminated in the famous Ohio raid. While crossing the river on the flight from Ohio at Buffington's Bar, Union gunboats came upon the scene and most of the cavalymen were captured, some escaping into Kentucky and some turning back into Ohio to be captured later. Mr.
Gaither was captured and sent to Camp Chase at Columbus in July 1863 and later was transferred to Camp Douglas in Chicago. He says he was humanely treated in both prisons, but naturally preferred to be free. Late in September or early in October he and Fielding Baker, of Trigg county, planned to escape by bribing the guards. Mr. Gaither's father had been to see him and supplied him with money and, as it was somewhat early in prison experience, escape was still comparatively easy. The guards for a consideration of $20 looked the other way while the two young men scaled a ten foot fence and made good their escape. Baker reached Kentucky, but Gaither was detained in Chicago as a witness in a matter that happened to come under his observation and next day headed for Canada and took passage for the east, proceeded by steamer to Havana and entered the South by way of New Orleans.
By a singular coincidence he and his comrade Baker both reached Atlanta and reported for duty the same day, from opposite directions, about Jan. 1, 1864. They were assigned to Col. Adam Johnson and Mr. Gaither was afterwards transferred to the 1st Georgia Cavalry under Col. J. J.
Morrison, with whom he surrendered at Greensboro, N. C., in April 1865. He took part in the Georgia campaign in 1864 until fall, when he was on sick leave for several months and saw no more severe fighting after he returned to duty.

The young soldier came to Hopkinsville in 1866 and was deputy county clerk under E. M. Buckner for two years. In 1868 he was elected circuit court clerk and was re-elected in 1874, serving 12 years. He then practiced law two years with E. P.

Campbell and in 1882 went into the tobacco business with his father-in-law, J. K. Gant, and followed this business for 20 years. In 1902 he became a traveling representative for the Forbes Manufacturing Co.
for 4 years. In 1909 he was chosen President of the Bank of Hopkinsville, which position he now fills.

Mr. Gaither in 1869 married a daughter of Gen. Felix Zollicoffer.
She died in 1871, leaving one son, Felix, who is now a prosperous merchant in Ft. Worth, Texas. In 1875
Mr. Gaither married Miss Rebecca Gant and there are three sons and two daughters of this union. One of the sons, like his great-grandfather, is a physician and surgeon of increasing prominence. Mr. Gaither's home is on the corner of Fourteenth and Liberty streets and surrounded by his happy family and the comforts of life he is doing his part to make Hopkinsville the metropolis of Western Kentucky. He is a member of Grace Episcopal church and of Ned Meriwether Bivouac U. C. V.
